Translated from Uspekhi Khimii, 45, 1729 (1976)

DEAR SEMEN ISAAKOVICH,

The Editorial Board and the Editors of the journal "Uspekhi Khimii" convey to you their heartfelt greetings on the occasion of your birthday. Your studies in the field of chemical science and engineering, particularly on the development of the manufacture of mineral fertilisers, are of great importance for the national economy.

Your career as President of the Mendeleev All-Union Chemical Society over a period of many years, during which you promoted assiduously the propagation of chemical knowledge in our country and an enhancement of the role of chemistry in various branches of industry and agriculture, has gained you general recognition.

Your tireless efforts to train scientific chemical cadres are widely known.

As member of the Editorial Board of the journal "Uspekhi Khimii" since the day of its foundation, you have rendered throughout all these years enormous service to the journal and its readers.

We wish you good health and much creative success.
